

Peace and Justice (and profits)
By Ms Nora Stehouwer

Fecha: Martes , 12 de enero de 2016 a las 20.00 horas
Lugar: Iglesia Koningkerk, Bruijnings Ingenhoeslaan 4, 2273 KR Voorburg
Transporte: Autobús nº 23 y tranvía 2 delante de la iglesia; aparcamiento libre
Reservar a: secretaria@asoha.nl

No socios: 5 euros pp

Nora Stehouwer , who is married to mr Joost van Iersel, has fulfilled several functions at the Ministry of Justice before she joined the legal department of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in 1986. In 1989 she entered into the diplomatic service in which capacity she fulfilled i.a. functions in Rome/Milan and in Brussels at the European Commission. Until July 2015, Ms Stehouwer was the Host State Ambassador to the International Organisations in the Netherlands. After that, she joined the MFA team for the NL candidacy to obtain a non-permanent seat in the UN Security Council.

Ms Stehouwer will explain in her speech – which is called: peace and justice (and profits) - the role of the different international courts in NL, the role of the Host state and how the theme of peace and justice plays a role in the campaign to obtain a seat in the UN Security Council.